

Dear Parents

BOOK WEEK: 27 SEPT - 01 OCT

Next week will be Book Week at JIMS. The students will take part in a celebration of books and reading, and be involved in a variety of fun activities centred on literacy and the library. The theme for the week is Folk Tales from around the World. These folk tales include legends, fables and fairytales from many cultures - a truly multicultural event! The students will become better acquainted with imaginative stories and well known iconic characters.

There are some special events held during the week:

- Mon. : Story telling
- Tue. : Watching DVD
- Wed. : Comic strips story line
- Thur. : Build a gingerbread house
- Fri. : Character dress-up parade

It's going to be a lot of fun, fun, fun. Some parents are telling stories from their home countries, while others are helping with other activities. Please don't miss the Character Dress-up Parade on Fri. We sincerely hope that everyone is excited about all the activities next week. We hope to see you there! ©

MULTICULTURAL PERFORMANCES

We already have some parents who are keen to help, but we are still looking for volunteers from various countries to stage songs, dances, stories, costumes or whatever is special in their countries. The performances will be staged during a special assembly (about 1-3 minutes for each number). Would you be ready some time in November?

If you believe you can help teach songs, choreograph or direct folk dances or provide costumes, please come and discuss them with me (or your Class Teacher) at your earliest convenience.

We look forward to working with you!

IS IT A BIRD? IS IT A PLANE? No - it's a tiger riding a bicycle in mid-air.

This was just one of the amazing hands-on exhibits at Pusat Peragaan IPTEK TMII that the Tigers got to experience during their field trip on Wednesday 22nd September as an introduction to their latest UOI 'How the World Works' which will be focusing on Science.

ASSEMBLIES

This week's assembly will be held on Mon 27 Sept at 8am. Parents are always welcome to attend, especially if their children's class is performing. This Mon, it will be the Lions' turn and we'll also announce House Points.
